

BASI Qualification changes over past 10 years

The table below shows how the BASI qualifications have developed over the past 10 years.

The evolution has been brought about due to the implementation of the Euro Test, maintaining the standards for the ISIA stamp and the introduction of BASI providing teaching qualifications on the artificial slopes.

Pre 2000 The courses below Grade 3 were delivered and still are delivered by the HNGB's	2000	Post 2008	This is what and where the BASI qualifications allow you to teach.
Artificial Slope Ski Instructor/ - Level 1 Artificial Slope Board Instructor	Still ASSI and ASBI	Level 1 – Ski Instructor	Instructor qualified to teach on Artificial slopes
Pre 2000	2000	Post 2008- The course below are assessed still to the same level today as they were in pre 2000
Grade 3– Ski Instructor	Grade 3– Ski Instructor	Level 2 – Ski Instructor	Instructor qualified to teach in the mountains part time for ski schools
Pre 2000	2000	Post 2008
Grade 2 – Ski Teacher	No longer awarded	No longer awarded	Instructor qualified to teach in the mountains full time for ski schools.
Pre 2000	2000 – Those that held the Grade 2 had to complete the extra modules to make the award meet the ISIA minimum standards and became National Ski Instructors ISIA.	Post 2008
Grade 1 – National Ski Teacher– ISIA stamp	National Ski Instructor ISIA stamp	Level 3 - National Ski Instructor ISIA stamp	Instructor qualified to teach in the mountains full time for ski schools.
Pre 2000	2000	Post 2008
Did not exist	International Ski Teacher Diploma – ISTD – ISIA Stamp	Level 4 - International Ski Teacher Diploma – ISTD – ISIA Card	Instructor qualified to teach in the mountains full time for ski schools or as an independent.